

SEC Risk Alert: RIA Use of Social Media

January 4, 2012

Investment advisers that use or permit the use of social media by their representatives, solicitors and/or third parties should consider periodically evaluating the effectiveness of their compliance program as it relates to social media.

Factors that might be considered include usage guidelines, content standards, sufficient monitoring, approval of content, training, etc.

Download PDF