

Why Businesses Will Love Sage Hosting and How You Can Offer It to Them

April 10, 2022

Businesses are actively looking to host their Sage apps in the cloud and untether themselves from the limitations of being office-bound. Through Swizznet's partnership with Sage, getting your customers up and running with hosting is simpler and more cost effective than ever. We've got you covered from A to SWIZZ!

Whether in the field, at the office, or from a home workspace, if there's internet, business can keep running. Swizznet is a trusted Sage hosting partner for several reasons. Here's what you and your clients can expect from us when unleashing the power of the cloud.

- Same day rapid deployment, onboarding and server access for partner deployment
- Bank-grade security complete with 256 bit encryption, active intrusion and malware detection
- Offsite back-ups for 30 days with server snapshots taken nightly for 7 days
- Direct line, email, chat or ticket to 100% US-Based Obsessive Support® 24/7/365
- Unparalleled user experience (operates like a true desktop!) through CloudJumper
- No minimum user requirements
- Best architected infrastructure (enterprise-grade)
- Choose to provision on industry-leading Google Cloud, Microsoft Azure or INAP
- 99.95% uptime guarantee

Learn about these benefits and more in the below infographic!

Interested in learning more about Sage hosting and how you can get your clients up and running? Swizznet makes it easy to sell our hosting with a number of free resources and our competitive HostShare® program. We support you with custom-branded marketing materials, admin access for custom configurations, and demo environments for showcasing your solution to current or prospective clients.

Let's start a partnership with great rewards for both your business and your clients. Get in touch with us today.